Re: OPENING AT MONTCLAIR STATE UNIVERSITY

Hello! You are receiving this email or letter as one who might know outstanding candidates for a TENURE TRACK SPECIAL EDUCATION position at Montclair State University (MSU), New Jersey's second largest and fastest growing university.

As noted by Edutopia Magazine and others, MSU is one of the nation's premiere schools of education. Our special education programs are growing and we're looking for an outstanding teacher-scholar to join our team. If you know anyone—a doctoral candidate, perhaps, or an interested colleague—please keep us in mind and forward to them the link to our job posting:

Thank you in advance for helping us fill this crucial position, and, ultimately, for working towards the education of all our children, particularly those with special learning needs.

As the chairperson of this search, I can be contacted 24/7 with salient information.

On behalf of the search committee, I thank you for your attention and potential help.

Sincerely,

Dr. David Lee Keiser
