

Council for Exception Children Teacher Education Division

Spring Report of: Kaleidoscope

Date Submitted: Friday, March 27

From: Sara Aronin & Christy Borders

Office/Term: Senior Student Representatives

Contact Information: christy.borders@uc.edu; (513) 556-6611
Saronin@mail.ucf.edu; 407-408-3410

Current Office/Committee Goals (2009)

- 1. Increase number of students serving in other capacities within TED.
- 2. To have a link to the student wiki on the TED page that is an updated source of information.
- 3. Mentor incoming student representatives and new committee members.
- 4. Create dialogue among students about CAN.
- 5. Finish guidelines and get board approval

Current Committee Members

Christy Borders	Sr. Rep
Sara Aronin	Sr. Rep
Kathryn Servilio	Jr. Rep
Nicole Swoszowski	Jr. Rep
Dusty Embury	CAN
Jen Eckler	CAN
Mary Moore	WIKI

Next Scheduled Committee Meeting (date, location, time):

Sat. April 4 at CEC Convention

2009 Accomplishments:

- 1. Increase number of presentations at Kaleidoscope.

	Dallas	Seattle (as of March 15)
Posters	31	45
Round Tables	10	10
Total Presentations	41	55
Total Presenters	56	75
Total Attendees (signed in)	80

- 2. Increase rigor of presentations through feedback of faculty members.

We received great feedback from students. Data shows continual increase in levels of presentations since feedback sheets have started.
For the first time the Kaleidoscope program will be included in the regular program for National CEC in Seattle.

Action Items for the Board to consider:

The requirements for awarding the registration fee by Kaleidoscope, the CAN position, and student rep positions