

Council for Exception Children

Teacher Education Division

Report of: Lyndal M. Bullock, 2008 Conference Chairperson

Date: March 4, 3008

Goals: To ensure that the 2008 conference is well organized and designed to meet the needs of the membership.

Accomplishments:

1. Designed informative website for the conference which features numerous aspects of the upcoming event. Additions to the program will be made to this site as things develop. When you go to the TED website, click on conference and check out conference details.
2. Call for Proposals has been posted with deadline of April 15, 2008. Need to encourage your colleagues to submit proposals.
3. Information packets and e-mails have been sent to potential exhibitors. You can help by making contact with potential exhibitors that you know. Call their attention to the Exhibitor Information available on the conference site.
4. Have established a Local Arrangements Committee who will be addressing certain tasks including a Reception Table.
5. Special features of the conference including all business-related meetings are attached. These are also posted on the website.
6. There will be 3 preconference workshops. There will be a $50 fee attached to each workshop. The workshop leaders are giving their services/expertise free of charge.
7. There will be 2 general sessions; Jane West (Wednesday evening), Michael Hardman (Thursday morning), and Ronnie Dettrick (luncheon speaker on Friday).
8. Conference registration information is posted on the website.
9. This year, all conference registrations will be done online. Payment may be made with a credit card through PayPal. If individuals desire to pay by check they will register, print off their invoice and mail it along with their check to the address posted.
10. Individuals who will review the proposals have been designated.

Encourage your colleagues to attend the conference. Actions Needed:

1. Encourage your colleagues to submit quality proposals.
2. Register on time and support the organization!
3. Help us get (a) exhibitors, and (b) donations for events.
4. Encourage your colleagues to attend the conference!
